LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Jeremiah 1:4-9

El Señor me dirigió estas palabras:

"Desde antes de formarte en el seno materno, te conozco; desde antes de que nacieras, te consagré como profeta para las naciones". Yo le contesté: "Pero, Señor mío, yo no sé expresarme, porque apenas soy un muchacho". El Señor me dijo: "No digas que eres un muchacho, pues irás a donde yo te envíe y dirás lo que yo te mande. No tengas miedo, porque yo estoy contigo para protegerte", palabra del Señor. El Señor extendió entonces su brazo, con su mano me tocó la boca y me dijo: "¡Desde hoy pongo mis palabras en tu boca!"

The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 100, John 15:15
J. Oconer Navarro

You are my friends, you are my friends, says the Lord, —
If you do what I com-mand ——— you.

“Vosotros sois mis amigos, dice el Señor, si hacéis lo que os mando”

SECOND READING

Ephesians 4:1-7, 11-13

Brothers and sisters, I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace: one Body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

But grace was given to each of us according to the measure of Christ's gift. And he gave some as Apostles, others as prophets, others as evangelists, others as pastors and teachers, to equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the Body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of faith and knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the extent of the full stature of Christ.

Palabra de Dios.

R. Te alabamos, Señor.

*I call you my friends, says the Lord,

GOSPEL

John 15:9-17

The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

A Reading from the Holy Gospel According to John.

R. Glory to You, O Lord.

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a sus discípulos: “Como el Padre me ama, así los amo yo. Permanezcan en mi amor. Si cumplen mis mandamientos, permanecen en mi amor; lo mismo que yo cumplo los mandamientos de mi Padre y permanezco en su amor. Les he dicho esto para que mi alegría esté en ustedes y su alegría sea plena.

Éste es mi mandamiento: que se amen los unos a los otros como yo los he amado. Nadie tiene amor más grande a sus amigos que el que da la vida por ellos. Ustedes son mis amigos, si hacen lo que yo les mando. Ya no los llamo siervos, porque el siervo no sabe lo que hace su amo; a ustedes los llamo amigos, porque les he dado a conocer todo lo que le he oído a mi Padre.

No son ustedes los que me han elegido, soy yo quien los ha elegido y los ha destinado para que vayan y den fruto y su fruto permanezca, de modo que el Padre les conceda cuanto le pidan en mi nombre. Esto es lo que les mando: que se amen los unos a los otros”.

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

PREPARATION OF THE ALTAR

There is No Greater Love

Michael Joncas

Refrain

The musical notation is for a refrain in 4/4 time, key of B-flat major. It consists of three staves of music. The lyrics are: "There is no great-er love, says the Lord, than to lay down your life for a friend; there is no great-er love, no great-er love, than to lay down your life for a friend." The melody is simple and melodic, with a final cadence at the end of the third staff.

1. As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you.
Live on in my love.
You will live in my love if you keep my commands, even as I have kept my Father's.
2. All this I tell you that my joy may be yours and your joy may be complete.
Love one another as I have loved you:
This is my command.
3. You are my friends if you keep my commands;
no longer slaves but friends to me.
All I heard from my Father,
I have made known to you: Now I call you friends.
4. It was not you who chose me, it was I who chose you,
chose you to go forth and bear fruit.
Your fruit must endure, so you will receive all you ask the Father in my name.

COMMUNION MEDITATION

I Am Not My Own

Craig Courtney

I am not my own, I am not my own,
Not in body, not in soul, in life nor even death.

I am not my own, I am not my own.

I belong unto my faithful Savior, Jesus Christ.

I am not my own.

I am not my own, I am not my own,
Not in body, not in soul, in life nor even death.

I am not my own, I am not my own.

His own blood has ransomed me, from evil set me free.

I am not my own.

For my salvation all things work together,

In eternal life He gives me hope.

By the power of His Holy Spirit, I will live for Him forevermore.

Cardinal Timothy Dolan

His Eminence, Timothy Cardinal Dolan was named Archbishop of New York by Pope Benedict XVI on February 23, 2009. He was installed as Archbishop of New York on April 15, 2009. He had served as Archbishop of Milwaukee since he was named by Pope John Paul II on June 25, 2002. He was installed as Milwaukee's 10th archbishop on August 28, 2002, at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist. Archbishop Gabriel Montalvo, Papal Nuncio to the United States, installed Archbishop Dolan.

Born February 6, 1950, Cardinal Dolan was the first of five children born to Shirley Radcliffe Dolan and the late Robert Dolan. In 1964, he began his high school seminary education at St. Louis Preparatory Seminary South in Shrewsbury, Mo. His seminary foundation continued at Cardinal Glennon College, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in philosophy. He then completed his priestly formation at the Pontifical North American College in Rome where he earned a License in Sacred Theology at the Pontifical University of St. Thomas.

Cardinal Dolan was ordained to the priesthood on June 19, 1976. He then served as associate pastor at Immacolata Parish in Richmond Heights, Mo., until 1979 when he began studies for a doctorate in American Church History at the Catholic University of America. Before completing the doctorate, he spent a year researching the late Archbishop Edwin O'Hara, a founder of the Catholic Biblical Association. Archbishop O'Hara's life and ministry was the subject of the Archbishop's doctoral dissertation. On his return to St. Louis, Cardinal Dolan served in parish ministry from 1983-87, during which time he was also liaison for the late Archbishop John L. May in the restructuring of the college and theology programs of the archdiocesan seminary system.

In 1987, Cardinal Dolan was appointed to a five-year term as secretary to the Apostolic Nunciature in Washington, D.C. When he returned to St. Louis in 1992, he was appointed vice rector of Kenrick-Glennon Seminary, serving also as director of Spiritual Formation and professor of Church History. He was also an adjunct professor of theology at Saint Louis University. In 1994, he was appointed rector of the Pontifical North American College in Rome where he served until June 2001. While in Rome, he also served as a visiting professor of Church History at the Pontifical Gregorian University and as a faculty member in the Department of Ecumenical Theology at the Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas. The work of the Cardinal in the area of seminary education has influenced the life and ministry of a great number of priests of the new millennium. On June 19, 2001 – the 25th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood – then Fr. Dolan was named the Auxiliary Bishop of St. Louis by Pope John Paul II. The new Bishop Dolan chose for his Episcopal motto the profession of faith of St. Peter: Ad Quem Ibimus, "Lord To Whom Shall We Go?" (Jn 6:68). Cardinal Dolan served as chairman of Catholic Relief Services, and is a member of the Board of Trustees of The Catholic University of America.

Cardinal Dolan completed a three year term as president of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, in November, 2013. He also completed terms as chair of the Bishops' Committee on Pro-Life activities and the Bishops' Committee for Religious Liberty. On January 6, 2012, His Holiness Pope Benedict XVI announced that Timothy Dolan was to be appointed to the College of Cardinals. He currently serves as a member of the Dicastery for the Oriental Churches, and the Dicastery for Evangelization. Following the resignation of Pope Benedict XVI, Cardinal Dolan participated in the Conclave that elected Pope Francis in March, 2013.

Fr. Chris Lawton, C.S.P.

Chris was born in Milwaukee and grew up in Oconomowoc, WI. A Harvard College graduate, he received his MD from Columbia University. During medical school, he became a parishioner at the Church of St. Paul the Apostle, serving as a leader in various parish ministries with the Paulist Fathers. In 2016 he returned to Milwaukee, joining the faculty at the Medical College of Wisconsin as a specialist in palliative care. So moved by his experiences with patients as well as by the mission of the Paulist Fathers, Chris entered seminary with the Paulists in 2018. He was ordained a deacon in Washington, DC, in September 2023.

Welcome to Paulist ordination morning!

After the house in which I was raised, few places feel as much like home as the church you enter today. As a medical student, I found comfort sitting alone in this cavernous space, praying with life's big questions. In time, it was here where I was invited into an experience of Catholic faith and community like I had never known before. Here where I came to know the Paulists and their mission to encounter and accompany all of us. Here where I made some of the great friends of my life. Here where the Spirit of God reignited this call to priesthood. So, it is my great joy to welcome you to this sacred space and to pray together.

Of all the prayers today, none is as important as "Thank you." To Mom and Dad, thank you for all the sacrifices you've made and love you've given. Nana, your unshakable faith and joy have nurtured this vocation and I am forever grateful. To Andy my rock, Waihay, Shannon, Tim, Juliet, Matt, Grace, Sophia, and Olivia, your support has been truly endless. Thank you and I love you. My brother Paulists, know that in you, and this mission, I rejoice. I believe so deeply in what the Spirit is doing in our Society and I am overjoyed to enter fully into our life together today. Thank you Gil, Mark-David, Dat, Frank, Heather, Greg, Steve, Mike, Eric, all those involved in my formation, and our extended Paulist family everywhere. To all the Lawtons and Fotschs, so many incredible friends, mentors, colleagues, and parishioners, thank you for your support, your guidance, and most of all, your love.

To my classmate, Dan, whose faith, friendship, fraternity, counsel, and laughter have made the last six years an incredible ride. Nothing has taught me more about being a Paulist than walking with you. What a privilege to stand with you today, brother. Thank you.

I give thanks too for loved ones looking down I pray with the best view today. Grandma and Grandpa Lawton, your unconditional love continues to sustain me. Pa Fotsch, God bless you, you called this a long time ago. Fr. Rich Colgan, Nancy Dorsinville, Linda Johnson, and my forever pastor, Fr. John Yockey, I cannot imagine this priesthood were it not for walking with you. Thank you for everything you continue to teach me.

At every turn, I've met fellow travelers who have blessed me with such love. And the deepest part of me has longed to return that love to the world as fully and authentically as possible. In ordained priesthood as a Paulist, I hope to give my love away in a manner that honors, even in some small way, all I've been given. In this life, this Way, I hope too to give thanks to the Holy Spirit, who deserves the most thanks of all.

With so much love, praise God, here we go.

Fr. Dan Macalinao, C.S.P.

Fr. Dan was born in Manila, Philippines on October 14, 1986 to Danny and Agnes Macalinao. He has an older sister, Laura, and a younger brother, RG. Dan went to elementary and high school at PAREF-Southridge School in Manila. He moved to the United States in 2004 to study Molecular Biology and Biochemistry at Wesleyan University in Middletown, CT. He worked at Jackson Laboratory in Bar Harbor, ME from 2008-2011. Dan moved to New York City on July 2011 for his PhD in Cancer Biology at Gerstner Sloan Kettering Graduate School.

It was while in NYC that Dan met the Paulist Fathers, whose mother church, St. Paul's, became Dan's home parish while in NYC. He was involved in a number of different ministries as a parishioner. Dan finished his PhD in December 2017. He moved to Washington, DC on January 2018 to start seminary with the Paulist Fathers. In September 2023, Dan made final profession to the Paulist Fathers and was ordained a deacon.

Dear Family and Friends,

I give great thanks that so many of you can be here today to celebrate my ordination to the priesthood. I am here today because of the experience of Love - God's love for me, and how God has gently nudged me over my lifetime into this vocation, and the love that I have experienced from each and every one of you on this journey of faith and life.

To my family - my mom, dad, brother, sister, Lolo Jun, Lola Ginny (+), and Ninang Nani - who let me leave home all those years ago to live in another part of the world and to 'find my vocation in life' - you set the foundation of love for me from the very beginning, and trusted that God was always in the journey. Thank you for always being there for me and for loving on me. I am also grateful for the many relatives who have been with me on this journey from the very start, on both the Galindez/Santos and Macalinao sides. Your love and support have nurtured me in so many ways.

To all of my Paulist brothers, and all those who were part of my formation journey, who have helped mold me into the Paulist that I am today, and who have prayed with and for me - thank you. Thank you Gil, Steve, Dat, Eric, Mark-David, Heather, Mike, Greg, Frank.

To all my friends who have loved this vocation into being - thank you. I think fondly of all those I have been privileged to pray with over these years, most especially at St. Paul's in NYC as a fellow parishioner, St. Paul's in LA on my pastoral year, and St. John XXIII in Knoxville, TN on my diaconal year.

To my classmate Chris, who has been with me lockstep all throughout my life as a Paulist - thank you for your friendship and kindness. I am so grateful to share this journey with you. I am a better person because of your love.

Our novice director, Fr. Rich Colgan (+) used to say to us in the novitiate that he would daily affirm his commitment as a Paulist, for as long as "this is where I find my love in the world, and God's love for me." These words ring true to me and my life as a Paulist - I say yes because this has been the best expression of my love in the world, and God's love for me. And I hope that it continues to be my most authentic expression of love as I say yes to this life each and every day.

Thank you to all of you for expressing God's love for me all through these years. I am humbled and blessed.
